Comments

Students were very engaged. Excited to have a teacher present through Sat School. Clearly happy and eager to learn.

The children have been very engaged considering they are young children. The children having whiteboards has been a blessing but not all the children do. The topics helped the children to be engaged.

Each child was different regard to their learning (concentration, progress, and engagement during the session. However most of children find it a bit tiring while learning online.

Most students would take part in the lessons. I would ask specific children to answer questions and would ask them to read parts of text out if they were able). They would show me written work via the camera if I asked. We did a lot of discussion,; work on SPAG and Maths work. Work would be a mix of collaborative or independent.

Favourite Moments

- 1. My favourite moments were when I got to teach my students face to face.
- 2. I am happy to see people of my country and teach my languages with new news.
- 3. During writing the children tried hard to write the sentence without my help and that was really challenging job for my students I really loved it.
- 4. It is a pleasure to teach and every day is amazing .
- 5. When pupils respond positively to the lesson slides I create. Also, when sharing stimulus videos, it's lovely to watch over 15 children's faces , how focused and engaged they are. I can see I make a difference and that makes me proud.
- 6. Teaching on school.
- 7. Children sharing their writing with the class and seeing the children grow in confidence.
- 8. Overall Everything is good.
- 9. Attending the NowRooz celebration at the school, to see that not only the language is taught to students, but also the culture is transmitted to them through these events.
- 10. Watching children progress throughout the year.
